Connection in Action

Social Supports for Older Adults

Social Connections: A Free Information Event for Adults 55+

Join us!

Tuesday

May 28

10 am - 1 pm

Oakville Public Library, Central Branch

120 Navy Street, Oakville

You are invited to hear from speakers about programs and services offered in Halton, to visit our information tables, and to meet new people.

Learn about Connection in Action, an information & referral hub for adults 55+. Learn about the value of social connections and the impacts of isolation and loneliness.

- Free of cost to attend.
- Light refreshments will be served.
- Limited free parking.
- Parking is located behind the library. Follow Navy St north to Water St.

Please contact us to Register:

(365) 999-2948

Hello@ConnectionInAction.ca

or click here to register online

Limited space. Registration is required.

A partnership with OPL and HIP

Oakville Public Library

Halton Information Providers